In pursuance to our order dated August 18, 2006, the sealed cover has been produced showing the result of the petitioner. We have perused the sealed cover after the same has been de-sealed by the Bench Secretary. We find that the petitioner does not make the grand as his marks in the written test are below the last candidate called for interview in respect of his category. Accordingly, the writ petition fails and the same is dismissed. The sealed cover after re-sealing has been handed over to the learned State counsel.
